50 CENTS PER MONTH

ARMIES LOCKED IN FEROCIOUS BAYONET GRAPPLE

Allies Are Now Assured of Victory, Says Lloyd-George

BIG MASSED RUSHES OF TEUTONS HALTED

Germans Flee From Outskirts Of Hargicourt, Leaving Rifles, Equipment

HINDENBURG POURS LEGIONS INTO BATTLE

Line Reaching From Arras to Champagne Is Seething With Death Inferno

LONDON, April 27.—Capture of the quarries on the eastern outskirts of Hargicourt, the Germans fleeing and hurriedly abandoning rifles and equipment, was reported by Field Marshal Haig today.

From north of Arras down to the Champagne today the Franco-British offensive and the German defense had developed into a titanic "push of war"—not tug of war. The only major infantry operations on the British front were of huge bodies of men on both sides gripped in hand to hand conflict. The most modern of all weapons, the perfected artillery pieces, still gave barrages of fire but the actual movement of the British forces forward was almost always by use of the most ancient of all fighting weapons—the steel blade.

In contrast to the previous strategic methods of concentrating the fury of his attack on particular spots in the German line, front dispatches today indicated, Field Marshal Haig was adopting the plan of keeping his whole front steadily pushing in a great concerted movement. Meanwhile Hindenburg was rushing great bodies of reserve troops and pouring these into the lines to interpose human barriers to the British advance. The enemy's losses have been colossal, due mainly to the dogged manner in which the Germans are held in closed rank formations, literally choking the way and offering unmissable targets for the British guns.

It is the British pressure toward Douai which the Germans apparently fear most, according to dispatches from the front. It was east of Gavrelle that the battle reached its greatest fury today.

The cloudy weather of the past twenty-four hours greatly disappointed the British airmen. With complete supremacy of the air established, they had hoped to add to their record of at least a hundred German machines brought down in the "big push" but the weather was against further aerial offensives.

Information from the French front indicated almost ceaseless counter attacks by the Germans. Everywhere the French withstood the attacks and inflicted tremendous losses on the enemy.

TRUONS ON SCARPE BEAT BACK BRITISH.—BERLIN

BERLIN, April 27.—The war office today announced that a British attack south of the Scarpe was heavily repulsed by the Germans.

CUTS DEAD WOMAN'S VEIN
LOS ANGELES, April 27.—Carrying out one of the requests of the will of the Baroness Rosa von Zimmermann, who died Wednesday, a doctor today severed a leg vein of the corpse. This the woman requested to positively insure her against being buried alive. Today the remains were cremated.

SCHOOL HAS NITRO
LOS ANGELES, April 27.—Manufacture of trinitrotoluene, used as a base for some of the deadliest of explosives, is now possible at the University of Southern California. The students and faculty have installed apparatus whereby they can make this product from asphaltum for the government.

2 SLAIN, 3 INJURED AS RAIDER SQUADRON BOMBARDS RAMSGATE

LONDON, April 27.—Shells from a German destroyer raiding squadron falling on Ramsgate killed a man and a woman, injured three other persons and damaged 21 houses and two stables, according to an official statement today.

The German warships were driven off by British patrol vessels. A number of their shells fell in the open country.

"Every destroyer fired at Ramsgate," the statement said. "The fire was immediately returned and the enemy driven off."

NEW MILLIONS IN PROSPECT FOR BEET GROWERS

Vast Benefits to Accrue to Planters Through Policy Announced By Plants

Beet growers supplying the five sugar factories in Orange county stand to benefit from $1,500,000 to $3,000,000 through a policy of the managements announced today.

The figures quoted are over and above the minimum price of $4.50 per ton for 15 per cent beets which has prevailed for many years, and they are based on an acreage of 60,000 acres supplying the five plants, an average yield of eleven tons to the acre and an increase of $2 per ton in the minimum price. What the growers will make will depend entirely on the price the factories get for sugar the coming season.

While the factory managements have not yet figured out just what minimum base they will establish on condition that certain prices are received for the finished product, it is safe to assume that under conditions which prevail at this time and which will no doubt prevail at the time the sugar is ready to go on the market quotations will be made that will warrant the factories paying at least two dollars more per ton, with a possibility of that being increased to $4.

Carrying the estimate to a further point and basing the average price per ton at $9, including the 30 cents allowed for each additional per cent of saccharine above the basic 15 per cent, the factories of Orange county will distribute $5,940,000 among the growers.

The schedule of prices will be worked out within the next week or two and when they are agreed on the growers will be informed of just what they are.

Factories all over Southern California today forwarded letters to their growers advising them that notwithstanding the fact they had signed contracts for the coming crop at certain prices, the factories are formulating a plan for regulating the prices to be paid on the basis of the net price received by the factories. It is also indicated that in future contract prices will be established on the same basis.

In effect, the factories are placing the growers on a profit-sharing basis, and it is one of the greatest steps in industrial profit-sharing that has ever been announced in California. It demonstrates the co-operative spirit of the California companies as in no other beet growing section in the union has a like step been taken. It makes the farmer a partner in the beet sugar business without his being called upon to contribute to the immense cost of the sugar plants. By adopting a sliding scale, both as to beet contracts and sugar prices, it

British Premier Confident No Guns Lost in 2 Years 'Our Gains Are Quadrupled'

'We Have Taken Captives At Ratio of 10 of Foe to 1 of Ours,' Avers Chief

Says U. S. War Entry Balances Loss of Many Vessels By England

LONDON, April 27.—"Victory is becoming increasingly assured," was the confident note sounded today by Premier Lloyd-George in a Guild hall speech.

"Before June, 1915, we lost eighty-four guns and a number of prisoners; thereafter we have not lost a single gun, while we captured 400 and have taken prisoners at a ratio of ten of the enemy for one of ours."

"During the first eighteen days of the battle of the Somme," the Prime Minister asserted, "we captured 11,000 prisoners and fifty-four guns. In the same period around Arras recently we took 18,000 men and 230 guns. Our gains were thus quadrupled."

"This means not only ultimate victory, but at less loss. Our chances are growing as our equipment is improving. And the Germans know it, which explains the despair driving them into black piracy on the sea."

"America, after great patience, decided it was no use to wave a neutral flag in the shark's teeth," the Prime Minister continued. "We have lost many ships, but German piracy gives the Southern California growers the full benefit of the prevailing high price of sugar.

The new price will be made to apply to the present growing crop for which contracts already exist at a much lower price.

It is an intelligently liberal and far-sighted move on the part of the sugar companies that will give a tremendous impetus to the beet sugar industry in California, already one of the state's most valued assets, and will strengthen the ties between the factories and the growers.

The notice mailed out today, is as follows:

To Our Growers: This is to advise you that we are formulating a plan under the terms of which we will pay for beets according to the net prices received for sugar, and in order to insure an equitable adjustment it is proposed to take the average of a full year's sales. In view of the present and prospective high prices of sugar it is expected this will mean a very material advance in the prices to be paid to our growers for some time to come.

The plan is being carefully worked out, which will require a little time, but definite announcement will be made to our growers within the very near future, and notwithstanding our existing contracts, will cover the prices to be paid for beets for 1917, and, in all probability, will also be the basis of the contracts to be offered in subsequent years.

IRRIGATION CONCERNS PLEDGE CO-OPERATION TO AID CROP YIELDS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Interior California water companies are today notifying the Railroad Commission that they will help in increasing crops. Some will give irrigation water and others will furnish it at a reduced rate. The commission is working for co-operation between consumers, communities and corporations.

WAR DECLARATION BY CHINA HELD IMMINENT

TOYKO, April 27.—It is not believed that it will be long until China joins the allies by declaring the existence of a state of war with Germany. This declaration, it is stated here, is awaiting the settlement of certain agreements with Japan. The proposals have been accepted by all the entente governments except Japan.

STEPHENS PROCLAIMS MONDAY RAISIN DAY

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—Governor Stephens today issued a proclamation making Monday Raisin Day in California.

130 CANNON SEIZED SINCE APRIL 16 BY ARMIES OF NIVELLE

PARIS, April 27.—General Nivelle's troops gained more ground around the blood soaked fields of Hurtebis and Carny and stormed and captured German trenches on the heights of Moronvilliers, today's official statement said. Since April 16, in the district between Soissons and Auberville, the French have captured 130 cannon from the Germans.

Artillery firing was very active in the sector from Nanteuil to Sancy, the war office reported.

South of St. Quentin the Germans suffered heavy losses in several raids, particularly in those attempted next to the forest of St. Gobain.

brought in America—and we are perfectly satisfied with the balance."

The Prime Minister's speech was delivered at the historic Guild hall after Lloyd George, in a formal ceremony, had been given the freedom of the city. He thanked London for its great services in the war and particularly for its aid to the empire in the last war loan, which he termed "the most remarkable financial exploit in history."

8 IN COURT ON PLOT CHARGES

7 Americans, Including 2 Ex-Congressmen, On Trial With Von Rintel

NEW YORK, April 27.—Seven Americans, including two former congressmen, sat with Captain Franz Von Rintel of the Imperial German navy in federal court today for trial on charges of conspiring with him to start strikes in this country's munitions plants.

Von Rintel, known as a friend of the Kaiser and a chum of Prince Henry of Prussia, was determined to stand by his plea that he had a right to act as he did against munitions plants which were making shells for the enemies of his country.

The Americans were prepared to demand a delay in their trials on the ground that public sentiment now is inflamed against Germany and German agents. The Americans were Frank Buchanan, Chicago, former Illinois congressman; H. Robert Foler, former Illinois congressman; Frank S. Monnett, former attorney general of Ohio; David Lamar, known as "the Wolf of Wall Street"; Henry B. Martin, once member of the anti-trust league of Washington; Herman Schulteis and Jacob C. Taylor.

They are former officials of labor's national peace council. The technical charge against all these men is violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, but the government will seek to prove they fomented munitions and shipyard strikes in violation of American neutrality.

Von Rintel is alleged to have been the "man with the money," supplied originally by Germany.

MONKEY YELLS FIRE ALARM AND SAVES ZOO

PORTLAND, Ore., April 27.—Owing to his prompt action in sounding the alarm, Jo Jo, a big monkey at the Washington Park Zoo, and his companions, are alive today and skipping around their cages as lively as ever.

Jo Jo discovered a blaze in the monkey house and immediately screamed wildly for aid and tore with all his might at the bars of his cage. A keeper ran to the cage and then discovered the flames just breaking through the roof of the building.

The fire was put out before much damage was done and Jo Jo immediately became quiet.

SENATORS START LAST DRIVE TO PUT THROUGH DRAFT BILL

House May Vote Late Today; Conscription Plan Sure to Be Made Law

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Under "forced draft," pressure the Senate began today at 10 o'clock—two hours earlier than the House—its concluding drive to put through the President's selective conscription plan for raising an army.

A night session is in prospect in the upper House. Sixteen senators have said they would speak.

Senator Jones of Washington today declared that to convince the enemy of the futility of continuing the war it would be necessary for the United States to train and equip a million men immediately; pass a national prohibition law in order to aid in saving food and men; and to "stamp out" the profession of democracy with the seal of sincerity by enfranchising the intelligence, purity and patriotism of our women.

As House and Senate neared the close of many hours of debate it was assured that selective draft will be the means whereby the United States will raise its army.

The forces opposing the administration bill and favoring, instead, the volunteer system, were weaker than ever before and it was freely admitted that the selective draft plan, practically as shaped by the army general staff, will be enacted into law.

The House may vote late today. The Senate is under agreement to vote not later than midnight Saturday.

The House began formal consideration of the army bill when Representative Kahn, congressman of California, and Representative Dent, volunteer supporter, made their closing addresses, Kahn stating that he was "opposed to patriots and volunteers shouldering the burden, while timid cowards sink behind." He said a statement showing that nearly half of the Civil war soldiers were between the ages of 19 and 21.

GERARD FLAYS CHAMP CLARK FOR STAND ON DRAFT

NEW YORK, April 27.—Vigorous denunciation of Champ Clark's opposition to conscription and a bitter attack on Clark, in which the charge of "constitutional cold feet" was made against the speaker, came as a climax of former Ambassador Gerard's startling speech at the American Newspaper Publishers' Association banquet last night.

Gerard asserted that Clark in fighting conscription was behind the times. "I supported Clark financially when he was a presidential candidate," said Gerard, "and I think there is some beneficent instinct which keeps the American people from putting forward this type of statesman."

$23,625,000 VALUE OF SPENT SHELLS AT VERDUN, IS ESTIMATE

LONDON, April 27.—Millions of shells from German and French guns of various calibres have left the battlefield of Verdun holding a veritable mine of verdun refined steel. So great is the store of scrap metal that the steel industry is figuring the advantages of trying to rake the blood-soaked area of France's supreme resistance, when the war is over, to redeem the fragments.

Military reports on many days calculated that a million or more projectiles had fallen into the area in twenty-four hours. The steel trade, however, prefers to estimate that Verdun was hammered at the moderate rate of a million a week.

A total weight of 1,350,000 tons is believed to await profitable redemption from the area of the fortress. At the present price of scrap steel $17.50 a ton, the deposit is worth $23,625,000.

FRUIT GROWERS IN AFRICA COMBINE

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Advices to the department of commerce from Johannesburg, South Africa, say that the fruit growers of the jurisdiction have formed a combination for the better sale of their products. The report is announced by the department with the comment that it would be of interest to Pacific coast growers to study this foreign method.

The principal activity of the combination will be to hold auctions, at which large lots of fruit will be sold to the wholesalers. The growers will maintain higher prices for small lots than for large ones, thus stimulating movement of their crops on a large scale.

83,652,907 POUNDS COTTON IS USED IN 3 MOS. FOR EXPLOSIVES

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—During the three months ending March 31, 1917, 83,652,907 pounds of bleached cotton fibre—equivalent to 167,306 bales of 500 pounds each—were used in the United States in the manufacture of gun cotton and explosives of all kinds, the census bureau announced today.

Bleached cotton fibre held in munition factories on March 31, amounted to 11,284,845 pounds, equivalent to 22,570 bales.

The amount consumed for the corresponding quarter of 1916 was 144,988 bales.

England Will Soon Be Forced To Accept Peace, Avers Marine Secretary

AMSTERDAM, April 27.—Germany's submarine warfare is having its most successful period of operations, the secretary to the German Ministry of Marine told a Reichstag sub-committee today. Dispatches from Berlin quoted him as asserting that April successes so far equalled all previous months.

"England will soon be forced to accept peace," he declared.

SLAVS WILL NOT QUIT ENTENTE, FORECAST

BY ARTHUR E. MANN

(United Press Staff Correspondent) COPENHAGEN, April 27.—Far from being affected by the tremendous and insidious Germanic pressure for a separate peace, Russia's ties with the Entente allies are slowly strengthening, according to information reaching here today through diplomatic channels.

What was regarded by pro-Allies here as the most interesting evidence of Russia's increasing war power against the Teutons was information of highest authenticity that the Russian army has repledged itself to the war.

RUGBY BOOSTERS MAP CAMPAIGN FOR 1917

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Rugby football enthusiasts are planning their 1917 season and arranging an active campaign in behalf of Rugby to cover the entire state, at a meeting being held today at the Olympic Club. Although during the last two years Rugby has received a severe blow by the defection of the intercollegiate game by the University of California, followers of the game have not given up their efforts to have it popularized in this state.

VIVE LE ROAST BEEF, CRY MEXICANS IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—"Vive le roast beef!" Dressed like you see Mexicans in the movies, sixty-seven sombrero-wearing sons of Mexico marched along the Embarcadero yesterday and charged the first eating house they came to. L. A. Pederson, ship owner, was grand marshal of the parade.

"They just arrived on a coastwise ship," Pederson said. "I'm going to ship them to Alaska on the bark McLaurin. They wanted to know if they would be well fed and I took them to the cafe to give them an idea of what they could expect."

PROBE POISON STORY

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—Police are today investigating the story of Mrs. August Stitz, who declares several attempts to poison her have been made, and who submitted to the police sugar and salt found to contain arsenic. She declares both of these were secured through a third person instead of by direct purchase.

SHIPS PACT ATTAINED, BALFOUR CABLES

British Envoy Wires to His Government Initial Parley Report

WILSON DECISION ON CO-OPERATION REACHED

Shipping, Food and Money to Come First, Men Later, President Decides

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The first chapter of America's part in the world war was penned in black and white here today by British Foreign Secretary Arthur James Balfour, when he cabled to his home government his initial report of agreements at the greatest war parley in American history.

Balfour's report will tell our European allies that the first problem settled was shipping.

America's part in the war as to order of operation was put squarely up to President Wilson by the allies here today. It was the President's decision that shipping, food and money would come first and men later.

It was learned today that foodstuffs and munitions will be equally strong in exports to the Entente governments. Balfour today declared that the American press is a powerful aid in solving war problems.

RED FISH WOULD BOOST USE OF FISH

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Secretary of Commerce Redfield today asked a congressional appropriation of $50,000 for relieving the food situation by causing a general use of fish.

AGRICULTURAL DEPT. TO BE PUT ON WAR BASIS

BY ROBERT J. BENDER

(United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, April 27.—To combat the high cost of foodstuffs, the department of agriculture is to be put on a war basis. Increasing the production of wheat and lowering the price of bread are the main objectives.

Department officials say this must be done—soon—and Congress will be asked to pass legislation accomplishing it.

With powers of handling situations coming under its jurisdiction in the same manner as the war and navy departments control matters under theirs, the agricultural department would be able immediately to cope with such developments as the sudden boosting of bread prices, officials say.

"Placing the department on a war footing would be the solution of the whole question of high prices on foodstuffs," Assistant Secretary Vrooman of the department said today. "It would assure the planting of vastly more acreage for one thing."

"Armies can be raised at any season of the year, but wheat has its planting season—and that a very short one. Once this season passes we must wait for a whole year before there is another."

"Meantime our people and our allies might be starving."

It is admitted that the jump in bread prices has come under the eye of the department, but pending congressional action on a measure to insure fuel war powers it is taking no action on the situation.

Meantime officials believe the bread rise in New York will not be followed by bakers in other parts of the country—at least for the time being.

PERISCOPE WRECKED

JUNIOR COLLEGE TO GIVE PLAY- PAGEANT ON MAY 18

Elaborate Production of "The Princess" to Be Staged at High School Grounds

With the first commencement exercises of the Santa Ana Junior College will be presented one of the grandest pageants ever seen in Santa Ana.

"The Princess," the play-pageant which will be produced by the members of the college, will be presented at the high school in the open. Rehearsals have been under way for some time and every detail of the big affair is gradually being worked out.

May 18 is the date set for the presentation of the play, which is a dramatization of Tennyson's poem. The story of the poem will recall the charming tale to those who have read it and will undoubtedly be interesting to those who are planning to attend.

The Story
Following is the story, and its careful reading or memorization by those who expect to be present, will add to their pleasure in witnessing the production.

In early years the Princess Ida and the Prince, the son of the northern King, had been betrothed, but when the Princess reached an age at which she learned to understand things of the world she proved herself exceedingly headstrong and would have nothing to do with this contract.

Much to the disgust of her old father, the southern King Gama, she renounced all claims on her royalty, fortune and family and founded a school for girls with this sign over the gate: "Let no man enter in on pain of death."

The Prince, in the meantime, had seen a picture of the Princess and fallen deeply in love with her. Therefore he resolved to be near her to plead his cause. With this in mind he and two young friends went, disguised as women, to the college and begged admittance. They were cordially received and all went well until one day Cyril, one of the friends of the Prince, took too much wine and revealed his sex by his wild drinking song. Confusion followed immediately and in the pandemonium the Princess was accidentally pushed off the bridge leading to the school from the gardens, into the water. The Prince was quick to the rescue and saved the life of Ida, but even then the Princess did not falter in what she considered her duty. She was quite incensed at the trick which had been played upon her and the three youths were thrust out of the gates.

The old northern King, in the meantime, angered at the Princess' treatment of his son, had mustered an army and now marched against the army led by Arac, the brother of the Princess. In the battle the Prince was wounded, and the Princess, finally melting, the college doors were thrown open to all the wounded.

Ida herself watched beside the couch of the Prince. All her former haughtiness and independence vanished and the betrothal vows were renewed.

LIQUID REFRESHMENTS JOIN UPWARD MOVE

"Self preservation is the first law of nature."

So when, after the first day of May, the slice of ham in a ham sandwich that you buy at any of the drug store lunch counters or at the confectioneries is a little thinner than usual, or you are taxed 15 cents for a straight malted milk drink and 20 cents for an egg drink, don't kick; just charge it up to the fact that the proprietors are protecting themselves against loss.

Malted milk has advanced—everything has advanced and there is no profit in handling these at the old prices.

At an informal meeting of proprietors last night, it was mutually agreed that prices on the liquid refreshments should be advanced.

Individual pots of beans are also scheduled for a bump upwards, and after the first they will be 15 cents instead of 10.

Anaheim's Petition to Be Heard at Next Meeting Of the Supervisors

The ways and means of getting the Santa Ana river from above Yorba to the upper part of the Newbert Protection District under control will be up for controversy again within a short time.

Garden Grove has proposed to form a district that will take care of a small dike line below the Olive-Anaheim road bridge. The Anaheim people have filed a petition asking for the formation of a district that will take care of the entire west bank from Yorba to the Garden Grove district. The territory included does not reach so far west as to include some of the chief objectors to the United Storm Water District, which met legal defeat a few months ago.

The United district was proposed for a district that would take care of the entire west bank above the Newbert district. Legal complications and internal differences broke that district up. Since then the Garden Grove people decided to proceed separately, and that they have done.

However, the Garden Grove plan seems certain to be up for scrutiny before the Board of Supervisors. Between the south side of the Garden Grove district and the upper part of the Newbert district is a distance of three miles, and if the Garden Grove district is formed there will not be much territory left for the formation of a district to care for that long strip. The Garden Grove people contend that they should in no way be held responsible for a strip of river that does not menace them.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT PAYS FOR DIPLOMA

VALPARAISO, Ind., April 27.—When Robert J. Ale, president of the University of Maine, was graduated from Valparaiso University thirty-five years ago, he didn't have $3 to pay for his diploma.

Ale entered the university without any money. He worked as a caretaker around one stable of an official of the university, shined shoes and did odd jobs. On commencement day he was "broke," but he borrowed his roommate's best suit and was graduated.

"I won't accept the diploma until I can pay for it," he said.

The other day he sent $3 and got his diploma.

FALSE HAIR SUPPLY IS FALLING SHORT

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The fact that thousands of Chinamen have affected the Occidental fashion of cutting their hair short instead of wearing queues has caused Hongkong to fall off as a human hair market. Formerly the Chinese port was known as the greatest market for human hair in the world and dealers in the United States imported large quantities of it for various purposes.

Now the coming of the republic and of new fashions has reduced the supply of long hair so greatly that the business is rapidly passing away. Dispatches to the department of commerce say that some of the well-known dealers who have been in business in Hongkong for many years now are planning to drop the trade.

ORANGE MARKET IS RECOVERING FROM SLUMP

There are indications that the orange market already is recovering from its slump of the past two weeks, according to Manager L. D. Palmer of the Orange County Fruit Exchange, Orange.

Palmer holds the same opinion regarding the cause for the slump as is held by other orange men in California, that the rush throughout the country to buy flour, sugar and other staples resulted in the decline in the price of oranges. People are retrenching on account of alarm over possible food shortage and are purchasing necessities, Palmer thinks.

According to Palmer there will be no heavy shipments of Valencia oranges before June 1. A few Valencias may be loaded out during the middle of May. There is a heavy stock of navel oranges remaining in Southern California and the Valencia men will not ship until the navel oranges have been disposed of or have begun to suffer through decay.

Palmer is confident that the slump in the market is only temporary, stating that signs already point to a raise.

FULLERTON, April 27.—Confidence that the abrupt decline in the orange market would be only temporary and that prices would be restored to normal soon, was expressed Thursday by William Benchley of the Benchley Fruit Company.

"The break in the market is partly due to the war scare and partly due to foreign importation," said Mr. Benchley. "People are for the moment retrenching, and that, coupled with the shipments of oranges into the United States from the Valencia district in Spain, is what has brought about the drop. The decline is the sharpest I have ever seen."

Inspector Says Conditions Are Bettered, But Far From Good

"Conditions for the apiaries were bettered by the light rain we had recently," said County Bee Inspector J. E. Pleasants of Silverado today, "but the outlook is not encouraging. SPLENDID MUSIC AND LECTURE OPEN SANTA ANA CHAUTAUQUA, '17

LOU BEAUCHAMP IN CHARACTERISTIC WAY POUNDS OUT POINTS

Tonight's Lecturer Will Be Brooks Fletcher, An Editor From Ohio

Santa Ana Chautauqua for 1917 has opened and the first day's program has been given. Those two programs marked the Chautauqua as being every bit up to expectations.

The entertainment by the Althea Players in the afternoon was thoroughly satisfactory, and last night's entertainment with the Althea Players in an introductory concert and with Lou Beauchamp as lecturer made a superb Chautauqua day.

And the best is yet to come. Tonight's program will include an introductory entertainment by the Metropolitan Singers, a quartet of big men with reputations as singers and entertainers, and by Ada Roach, the funny girl. The meeting will start with community singing. "America" will be the first song.

Brooks Fletcher, editor of the Marion, O., Tribune, is to be the lecturer tonight. Brooks Fletcher has lectured in Santa Ana before, and he will need no introduction to a good many of those who will hear him tonight. Brooks lectures about 200 times a year.

The afternoon programs start at 3 o'clock and the evening programs at 7:30.

LECTURER DECLARES CHURCHES STANDING STILL THESE DAYS

Long, pious faces, failure of church people to extend the helping hand to the man down and out and in distress and the manner in which the average clergyman expounds the gospel, in the opinion of Lou J. Beauchamp, Chautauqua lecturer, are responsible for the lack of interest in the church and the small percentage of increase in membership in the protestant churches. He said that records of 1916 show that a gain of only 2 per cent was made last year.

A rapid talker, Beauchamp last night convulsed his audience one moment and had it in tears the next. He moved his auditors to laughter in telling stories to force home points in the serious side of his lecture.

"Take the Sunny Side." That was the subject of his lecture. "Laugh more and take less medicine," was his advice. There is always a bright spot, no matter what the circumstance, if one can but see it.

He criticized the united churches of this country for standing by without entering a protest and lending a helping hand to the Armenians who were being murdered and starved by the thousands by Turks. He recited their awful sufferings and the horrors they endured.

The increase in crime in the United States he attributes to too many laws and the lack of courage on the part of committing magistrates in giving convicted people sentences commensurate with their crimes. The United States now leads the world in the percentage of murders, taking the lead from Italy.

The percentage of murders in the United States in proportion to population is greater than that of any other nation. Leniency was the cause, he believed. Of fourteen men convicted in England of murder, fourteen were executed. Of 384 murders committed in Chicago alone, two were hanged.

"We don't administer punishment," said he, "and that is the reason crime has increased. Seventy-five per cent of crime in the United States could be done away with if the proper punishment were administered. Seventy-five per cent of the murderers of the United States are boys—boys between the ages of 10 and 22 years. Murders committed by men over thirty years of age are committed under sudden impulse. The thugs of today are boys."

"Our criminal laws are a joke. The legal fraternity is not responsible. The lawyers don't know the laws—they can't keep up with them, and they shouldn't be expected to. Too many new laws are being passed. In the past five years 62,550 new laws have been passed in the United States—in England 1,500 is the record for fifteen years. There are so many technicalities in the criminal laws of this country that most any good lawyer can free a culprit."

Two Standards of Law
"Again, we have two standards of law in this country—one for the rich man and one for the poor. If a poor man steals a loaf of bread, he is sent to jail. If a bank cashier steals $200,000, and robs widows and orphans, he either goes free or gets a short term. I know of a banker who stole $200,000. He got thirteen months in jail—a pretty good salary."

Reverting again to the religious side of his address, he said that the next eight years would see the most sweeping tide advance in Christianity and sociological reforms that ever swept over this country. Asking the question, "Why don't people go to church?" he answered it by saying:

that the men in the pulpit failed to interest. They take subjects and treat them as if talking to people of the back ages—they are not modern. The pastors don't throw life of the present age into their sermons. He declared the average salary of the clergymen of this country was not sufficient to maintain a family of three.

A round of applause greeted his statement that a boy had as much right to go to Los Angeles and enter saloons or gamble as the church people had to gamble in their home games of euchre with a piece of cut glass as the stake.

Tribute to Elks
He paid a glowing tribute to the lodge of Elks for their charity work—extending the helping hand in time of distress, and declared that lodges lived more the basic principle of Christ than do the churches and the church people.

Community singing is to be one of the features of the Chautauqua, preliminary to the program. Pamphlets containing songs have been printed and will be used. Harry Garstang is the leader, with Earl Fraser at the piano. "The Star Spangled Banner," "Old Folks at Home," "Juanita" and "America" were sung last night.

The Althea players, who opened the Chautauqua with an afternoon concert, repeated their success of the afternoon and were greeted with hearty applause.

The introductory program of the Althea Players yesterday afternoon at Chautauqua gave a fine foretaste of what may be expected during the week. The sextette of pretty and versatile young women literally carried away the huge audience with a whirlwind of song, music and readings.

Each uses the violin with great artistic ability, also the piano, also the voice, and although only one petite miss gave a reading, no doubt all have the ability to do so, as their talents have been distributed in great profusion.

Included in the delightful program were "Aloha," Kreisler's Rondini, "Mighty Lak a Rose," a little bit of the old South in a medley, Riley's "Little Red Riding Hood," a musical specialty by the Beasey sisters, including Bohemian and Spanish dances, musical reading, Liszt's second rhapsodie and gypsy music.

"The Bee," a violin duet by Schubert, was greatly enjoyed, as was also the oriental music, a Chopin prelude and the beautiful closing ensemble number, "The Stars and Stripes," by John Philip Sousa.

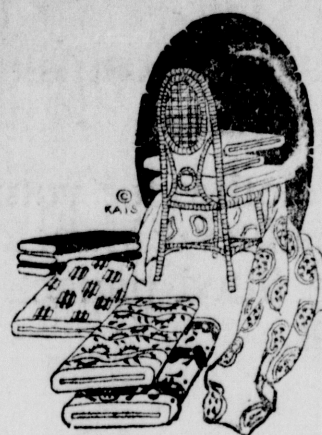

Metropolitan Men Singers
The Metropolitan Men Singers and Ada Roach are the entertainers for this Friday afternoon. The quartet is one of ability. There is a precision, a snap, an enthusiasm to their program which is irresistible. These four big men with fine voices are Jack Wiles, Leonard C. Aldridge, Glen Chamberlain and Floyd Williams.

The men are equally at home with the classical, the popular or the old home songs. The vigor and enthusiasm with which they sing the college songs and the humorous selections are good to witness.

The men are entertainers as well as singers. They have harmonious,

About Ada Roach
Ada Roach is a comedienne of broad smile and with a shrewd sense of humor. To be plain, she's Irish. "As a delineator of Irish characters, Miss Roach is one of the best ever seen and alone could give an evening's entertainment fully worth the price of a season's ticket," said the Butler (Mo.) Democrat recently.

In her nationality skits and dialect songs she is "a perfect scream." She is "The Joy Gern." She is "Ada the Sunshine Girl." She is possessed of the smile that doesn't come off. It will take but a nod of her head, a twist of the wrist or a word and a smile to make her audience laugh, for Miss Roach's smiles are contagious. She brings sunshine to her audiences and helps make life worth while.

Saturday's Program
The Hawaiians, with W. S. Ellis himself as manager and director, are coming to Chautauqua, tomorrow, Saturday. They come because Chautauqua audiences demand them. This particular company comes because they are the best of all the many Hawaiian companies playing in this country.

The pianist has proven himself a wizard, tripping and tramping over the keyboard with a reckless abandon and artistic nimbleness that prove at once surprising and delightful. Leader W. S. Ellis will tell of the habits and characteristics of the Hawaiian people. He tells of their dances, of the weird songs and chants, which have in modern times evolved into rag time music. He explains the Hawaiian method of producing a cello effect on the guitar.

In the evening Saturday William Rainey Bennett will lecture, following music by the Hawaiians.

CRIME AND YOUTH

In his lecture at the Santa Ana Chautauqua last night Lou Beauchamp touched upon one of the hardest problems that modern society has to face, the crime problem. With it goes the prison problem, one of the problems of today about which sociologists have centered oceans of effort in the last few years and in which distinct and highly satisfactory progress has been made.

"The enforcement of the law" was the principal solution offered by the lecturer last night, and in the offer of that remedy as one of the most efficacious most of us will join, but he might have dwelt longer and hit the nail on the head still harder had he developed the point that he brought out showing that a large proportion of the most serious crimes of the day are committed by youths.

Recently in an address, J. A. Johnston, warden of San Quentin penitentiary, briefly summed up his views of the crime problem, as follows:

In the beginning of my address I told you that we have 2390 inmates at San Quentin. Let me now tell you that more than half the number, over 1200, are under 30 years of age; 600 are under 25 years; 300 are under 21 years. From these figures you will readily understand that youth is the time of lawlessness, that criminal tendencies usually assert themselves early in life, and that in its very essence the crime problem is a boy problem, and when you solve the boy problem you solve the crime problem.

No matter how many prisons are built, or what efforts are made to humanize them, if the time-honored agencies of the home, the church and the school fail to do their part in character building, and if fathers and mothers, preachers and teachers, neglect their duties or their opportunities, and if children grow up untrained to meet life's demands, crime is bound to increase and the best prisons will be but mere monuments to neglected youth.

Local officers will tell you that a large proportion of the tramps and hoboes of today are youngsters, youths around 20 years of age. One cannot but wonder what comes of them. Probably many of them come to a realization of the fact that they are drifting into the whirlpool. Possibly it takes a jail sentence or a prison sentence to call the halt. Possibly maturer judgment causes them to pause. The lure of adventure wears off. With some, of course, the halt is never called. Parole, probation and indeterminate sentences have been used with varying success, and while some judges are inclined to be either stricter or more lenient perhaps than you would be, uniformly they are trying to do their best between the theory of strict enforcement of the penalties of the law as a deterrent to crime and the theory of "giving a man a chance to make good."

Warden Johnston declares without reservation that the parole system is the best feature that California has in connection with its prison management. Out of 4,117 men and women placed upon parole, seventy-eight per cent live up to their paroles, secure their final discharges and continue to live decently and honestly and become useful citizens.

The warden got to the bottom of the cause of crime when he placed it at the failure of homes, churches and schools to build in all they deal with the necessary character that will prevent them from drifting into waywardness. He might have put all of the blame on the home, and not been far amiss. Wrecked homes, drink, unfit parents—these are the things that are responsible for the conditions. The church and the school and many governmental institutions are doing their best to overcome the handicap of the home that is a menace and not a home.

Here comes another possibility. The seaweed that tangles around your feet when you are in bathing may be a table delicacy.

According to a news dispatch from Honolulu, Hawaiians may eat seaweed as one way of combatting the high cost of living.

Thy Father's Friend

Youth's Companion

In the will of the late Justice Lamar of the United States supreme court there was one very unusual legacy. He bequeathed his friendships to his family.

"To my family," the will runs, "I bequeath friendships many and numerous in the hope that they will be cherished and continued. True friendships are the most valuable of our earthly possessions; more precious than gold, more enduring than marble palaces, more important than fame."

As Henry Drummond has well said, "Friendship is the nearest thing we know to what religion is!"

The family that inherits such wealth is truly rich. But it is a legacy that must be used if it would be preserved. Friendships cannot be locked away in safes or lent to historical exhibits and museums. Like love and faith and courage, they belong to that intangible treasure of the soul that must be kept from destruction by constant service. It is not alone material things that "rust doth corrupt."

How many of us have let slip through busy or careless fingers the beautiful and glowing friendships of our youth? We did not mean to do it; indeed we have often regretted the loss until, as the years pass, the regret gradually fades away. And if that is true of our own friends, how far more true of our fathers' friends!

Yet there have been families where friendships have passed down from father to son for several generations. There is food of thought here. How many fathers are building up fine and loyal and serviceable friendships that they can with pride and gratitude bequeath to their sons? How many mothers are storing up like treasures for their daughters? The question does not end there. How many young people of today are fitting themselves to receive such legacies? How many in all the varied and urgent calls of life are heeding the challenge to make themselves worthy of friendships by their loyal and fine tempered and generous friends themselves?

"A man that hath friends," the old Book of Wisdom declares, "must show himself friendly;" and again, "Thine own friend and thy father's friend forsake not."

SPORTS

By H. C. Hamilton

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—Missouri university, since the withdrawal of Harvard, Cornell and Michigan universities, is favored to carry away the relay honors in the annual Penn relay meet, which begins here today. With Simpson heading the list of athletes from the western university, this college probably will stand high in the point score, also.

In spite of the fact that war is causing many colleges and universities to abandon their athletic training this spring, the greatest entry list of all time, 300 teams, has been received by the university.

Earl Thompson, famous Dartmouth all-round star, is entered in the pentathlon and is expected to furnish the greatest opposition to Howard Berry, star of the University of Pennsylvania.

Authorities here have promised to turn the meet into a magnificent patriotic demonstration, absolutely refusing to entertain the possibility of calling off the established classic of college outdoor athletics. The meet may prove to many schools the convincing argument that preparation by discontinuance of athletics is the wrong kind of preparation.

MEET AT GREENVILLE

St. Joseph's Altar Society
Pleasantly Entertained
At Borchard Home

The meetings of St. Joseph's Altar Society of the Catholic church which are being held in the country are greatly enjoyed by the members and for the first time yesterday a large crowd of about twenty-five, including the pastor, Rev. Fr. H. Eumelen, motored to the home of Mrs. Anton Borchard at Greenville, where she and Mrs. Charles Borchard were hostesses.

The home was very attractively decorated with various kinds of roses and the afternoon was spent with jolly chat and sewing rags for rugs to be sold at the fall bazaar.

Before the guests departed, the hostesses, assisted by the Misses Oelke and Mary Maag, served appetizing refreshments of sandwiches, home made pork sausage, pickles, coffee and cake.

The hostesses for the next meeting will be Mrs. Charles Bevis and Mrs. Collier at the latter's home, 321 Maple street, Orange.

Given a Surprise

Wesley Perine of the Intermediate commercial department, reached his sixteenth birthday on Tuesday. At the close of the sixth period he was informed by his teacher that Prof. Roberts, wished him to come to the office. Wondering what rules of the school he had violated, Wesley carried a very sober face to the office to meet one equally as sober. A short interview there was followed by instructions to go to the cafeteria. As he stepped into the room and caught sight of the rose-decked table surrounded by his merry classmates, he made the discovery he was the victim of a surprise.

Delicious ice cream and cake soon made their appearance. An interesting feature of the occasion was the cutting of the beautifully decorated cake surrounded by sixteen yellow candles. The skill with which Wesley performed this feat gave proof of clever culinary ability. A shower of postal cards and good wishes from the guests gave him a glad start into the new year.

The following were present: Prof. Roberts, Mrs. Roy Perine, Mrs. J. F. Britton, Mrs. Iva Webber, Misses Hazel Cramer, Alice King, Frieda Jones, Martha Nielson, Katherine Shultz and Irene Perine; Carl Opp, Joe Prevost, Frank Adams, John Rhoades, Victor Lalonde, Wesley Perine.

Pleasant All-Day Meeting

The all-day meeting of the Amphion Circle was held yesterday at the hospitable home of Mrs. F. C. Rowland on McClay street, with a goodly attendance. Roses were used to grace the home and the time was spent making scrap books for the children of a Chinese mission.

A surprise luncheon at noon was greatly enjoyed by the members.

PROGRESSIVE WHIST

Mrs. Mit Phillips Hostess to Company of Friends to Enjoy Series Games

A large and merry group of friends of Mrs. Mit Phillips on North Main street gathered at her home yesterday in response to invitations to play whist. Upon their arrival they were met at the door by a little fairy in the person of Jeannette Watson, who gave them gracious welcome. Other assistants, who helped Mrs. Phillips in her pleasant duties, were another little maid and dear friend of hers, Miss Enid Twist, Mrs. E. A. Stockslager, Miss Hazel Stockslager and Miss Elizabeth Paine and Mrs. Alba J. Padgham.

The pleasant home was a bower of beauty, fairly blooming with magnificent roses and spicy sweet peas, artistically arranged in baskets and bowls. Upon the tully cards were clever jingles, telling the names of the guests in various rhymes, the guessing of identities forming an enjoyed and amusing diversion.

At the close of the whist games, Mrs. Phillips awarded a pretty flower bowl from which waved the Stars and Stripes, as first prize to Mrs. Harl Kittle, a dainty silk powder bag to Mrs. John Wehrly as second trophy, and a box of confections to Mrs. Carl Strook to console her for low score.

Eleven tables were set for the guests and at the conclusion of the games a tempting collation was served.

FAMILY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Heninger Hosts Honoring Mr. and
Mrs. Noah Rulon

In compliment to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Rulon, who were married recently, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Heninger were hosts at a pleasant family dinner at their home on South Birch street yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The table was graced with Cecile Brunner roses and chicken and all its appetizing accessories were served.

The evening was spent with social conversation and Mrs. Fred Chapman pleased with instrumental music.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Rulon, parents of the groom, of Indianapolis, who have been spending the winter here and at Long Beach; their son, Forest; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Elliot and son, and Palmer Heninger, besides the hosts and honored young people.

The Rulon family has changed its plans, so that another month will be spent in Santa Ana.

To Teach Blind

Miss Kate M. Foley, home teacher for the blind for the California State Library, plans to hold a class in Santa Ana to teach the adult blind to read. This will be open to all the adult blind of Orange county and if their names are sent to the Associated Charities of Santa Ana, they will receive information about this class and about transportation, etc. The class will be free. Miss Foley will plan to give two days a month to Orange county. This is an important and necessary work. And it is a splendid opportunity to have Miss Foley's help. She is herself entirely blind and knows from experience all the difficulties which confront the blind who wish to learn to read and to make a place for themselves in the world.

All interested are asked to send the names of their blind friends and acquaintances to Santa Ana Associated Charities, 111 East Third street, Phone 976J, office hours 8 to 10 a. m. and 3 to 4 p. m.

A General Invitation

The ten young ladies who are planning the Red Cross Charity Ball for May 4 have found their task in issuing invitations beyond them. They have already sent out 800 invitations and many have not yet received them, so they take this means of making the invitation general and ask everybody to assist in making the affair both a social as well as a financial success.

No Boys' Suits Made in America Will Wear LikeOregon
Cassimere
All-Wool Suits

—It is a grave problem to dress boys economically these days. And it is going to be a graver problem as time goes on. Therefore—whatever is said on the subject of Boys' Clothes is vitally important news.

—Perhaps you are not aware of the reasons for the sharp advance in clothing prices since the war started. The facts, briefly, are these: Most of the wool used in America comes from Australia. Australia being a British possession was forced to send all of its wool output to England, where it was direly needed by the Entente Allies for soldiers' uniforms. Inasmuch as the average wearing life of a soldier's uniform is about sixty to ninety days and there are approximately 5,000,000 fighting men to clothe, you can have some conception of the scarcity of wool in the United States and the reason for the high prices.

A Remarkable Fabric

—The good news below concerns Boys' Oregon Cassimere All-Wool Suits. These Oregon Cassimere Suits for boys are without doubt the greatest wearing clothes to be had in all America. The reputation and integrity of Vandermaast & Son are behind this statement. They have something big to shout about, and therefore are shouting hard.

THE MATERIAL

—Oregon Cassimere—made of selected all-wool yarn is especially adapted to Boys' Suits. It is firmly woven; will not get shiny; stays pressed for weeks and just wears and wears. The patterns are full of life and very becoming to boys.

—These Boys' Oregon Cassimere All-Wool Suits at $5.95 are the kind you can stick in the washtub. They will come out spic and span and continue their iron-wearing quality.

—No one has ever equalled them for good looks and toughness of wearing quality. They're remarkable boys' suits at $5.95. (Price, however, is subject to immediate advance.)

VANDERMAST & SON
THE HOME OF GOOD CLOTHES FOR MEN AND BOYS

FASHION LETTER

BY MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)

The busy housewife pants these days. As she does up the chores. You see she's cast her skirts aside for trouserettes indoors.

NEW YORK, April 27.—In a class with the hoary and decrepit mother-in-law joke the one about the advanced female donning the trousers has done equally long and faithful service. But lo and behold, the latter wheeze has now ceased to be a joke and in these days of 1917 become a stern reality.

Dr. Mary Walker blazed the trail for the wearing of masculine nether garments. I believe, but it took a heap of red tape to keep them on. Mme. Curie more recently gained the permission of her government to wear 'em after a great deal of trouble and with the greatest ease and nonchalance.

Along with the high cost of living and other evils, of course, this feminine penchant for trousers must be blamed on the poor war. Only this time it is no evil, but a blessing in disguise.

With the women forced to take over the tasks of males in all the fighting countries, naturally it was met that they should take over the cut of their clothes as well. One can't very adequately oil engines, plow, drive motors and run elevators all done up in skirts and petticoats.

Sitting on the sidelines, Maiden America and Matron America as well, have calmly appropriated, as they do all imported fads and fashions, those bifurcated garments for their own and pant no longer merely with emotion or exertion but with gingham, denim, chambray, silk and satin.

By a quaint whimsy of fate it isn't the advanced female of the joke who is now wearing the trouser effects, however, but the dear, domestic little wives and mothers, the "queens of the home" and "the housewives of the hearth."

As a first aid to baking, brewing, sweeping and chores of the home in general, nothing could be neater, sweeter or fleetier than one of the new pantalette house dresses.

They are made with a blouse waist, with sailor collar and loose, three-quarter sleeve. They have a neat little belt, button down the front and there are two dandy handy pockets, one on each hip. Thus far they are no different than the little old last year's model house dress. But below the pocket comes the great divide into cunning little trouserettes, that clasp the arklies with an elastic headed frill or else hang straight with a stitched band of the material bounding them, like an honest to goodness regular male trouser cuff.

On some of the prettier models this band around the bottom of the pantallettes like the belt, collar, pocket and sleeve cuffs, is of a contrasting shade of material. These sensible and scone suits come in chambray, gingham, denim and khaki, in pink or blue or white or tan.

Then there are the regulation overalls, the female of the species resembling much the male. These are of course for the more strenuous walks of workaday feminine life.

Skating overalls are cutting some ice these days too, let me tell you. Fair skaters find they can cut a much better figure eight or any other figure at all in the smart new tailored trousers of novelty suiting and tweed, cut generously wide with big flap pockets on each hip and cunning suspenders of the same material holding them securely in place.

Milady of elegant leisure is panting to be in a trousered class with her sisters, the sporting girls and the busy housewife. So she affects the straight, black silk trousers of the Chinese women, topped with a gaily embroidered Chinese coat for her "robe in time" or the full trousers of a Turkish trophy under a flowing coat of silk.

Wearing trousers has indeed become such a fascinating habit that the 1917 female cannot even doff them at night and so she dons, when the shades of night have fallen down and the window shades are down as well, cute little suits of pajamas with feminine V cut décolleté and short sleeved uppers and masculine, straight cut, ankle length lowers.

So you see it keeps lovely woman panting twenty-four hours a day to keep up with these strenuous times.

AMUSEMENTS

Grand Opera House

Morocco's Burbank Theatre of Los Angeles was the birthplace of the greatest musical production of the 20th century, "Hello Hawaii," which will be at the Grand Opera House here Saturday night. An organization of the best musical talent that could be put into one big musical production was secured regardless of expense, the result was very gratifying to the producer when the opening night was heralded by the press and public in one accord as the very best musical production that has ever come to the city of Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles Examiner stated that the Hello Hawaii musical show compared favorably with any Broadway show that ever came to Los Angeles. Each part was specially cast and the proper person for the part was secured.

Clune's Theater

"The Image Maker," the Pathe Gold Rooster Play produced by Thanhouse, has for its star Valkyrien, Baroness Dewitz, the famous Danish beauty. The story is one of reincarnation woven around the appearance of an American motion picture company in Egypt filming the ruins of tombs for a setting. Valkyrien's part gives her splendid scope for her beauty of face and form. "The Image Maker" will be shown at Clune's Theater tonight.

ORDERS RUSHING APPLICATIONS FOR PRESIDIO WAR CAMP

Call For Older Men Sounded By Government In Campaign For Officers

SPEED NECESSARY, WARNING TO THOSE AFTER COMMISSIONS

Military Training Camp Ass'n. 749 S. Spring St., Los Angeles.

April 26, 1917. Candidates for commission in the Officers Reserve Corps of the United States Army, who fail to make application before noon on Saturday, probably will be excluded from the first training contingent at the Presidio.

Orders have been received from the Western Department that all applications shall be certified daily and the necessary papers rushed to San Francisco. From the fact that the daily totals are to be wired the department, it is evident that the total number of officers who will be accepted is small.

All the final examinations must be held before Monday noon with a probability that telegraphic orders may be received in advance of that time to cease examining candidates.

It is for this reason that we must warn all candidates against delay in filing the necessary applications. JOHN S. CRAVENS, Chairman, can be accommodated at the Presidio is about reached.

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—At the military training camp headquarters, 749 South Spring street, Los Angeles, orders were received to speed up the Southern California applications for officers' training camp to be held at the Presidio, May 8.

Despite the fact that Colonel John C. Gresham and his examining board are passing the applicants through at more than 125 a day, the age average has been about 26 years and the government is now sounding a call for older men of more mature judgment capable of filling the higher commissions in the new army. These men are wanted at once and it is particularly emphasized that previous military training is not a requisite.

The men at the first camp will rank those attending the succeeding camps and the opportunity of securing a high grade commission is very promising. While to date over 450 men have been passed, more than 3000 are required by May 1.

The matter of transportation is already under consideration by Executive Secretary Roy E. Naffziger. He conferred with railway officials and will also take the matter up with a steamship company. If the proper railway rates cannot be secured, the association will consider chartering a boat for the entire number. It is expected from 1200 to 1500 men will make the trip to the Presidio camp. Applications should be made to Southern California Military Training Camp Headquarters, 749 South Spring Street, Los Angeles.

PLACENTIA GUARDS BUILD AEROPLANE

PLACENTIA, April 27.—A movement to establish an aeroplane squadron to work in conjunction with the Placentia home guards, has resulted in the beginning of construction of an aeroplane.

The plane, which will have a sweep of wings of thirty-six feet, will be modeled after the United States army tractor.

Oak and ash to be used in the construction of the frame, are on the ground and under the supervision of G. M. Gordon, an oil man living at Placentia, members of the Placentia home guards have begun the construction of the aeroplane.

The cost of the machine is to be borne by the Placentia home guards. Completed, it will stand them nearly $200.

The labor will all be performed by members of the organization. When the machine is completed it will be equipped with an automobile engine of sufficient power to propel the aeroplane.

COLORADO BEGINS BIG FOOD DRIVE

DENVER, April 27.—Colorado, the first state to act when the importance of the bread basket's part in the war became known, has virtually completed organization of the administrative machinery for the biggest "food drive" in the history of the country.

Immediately following the declaration of war, Governor J. C. Hunter anticipated the national movement by naming a ways and means committee, advised by J. K. Mullen, president of the Colorado Milling and Elevator company, and ex-Governor Ammons, one of the state's largest farmers.

The committee already has completed organization of a sub-committee in every county of the state. Working on the assumption that money, or its equivalent credit, is the greatest need of farmers to meet the crisis, the committee has assured farmers capital with which to finance his food-raising operations. The home gardening movement was given tremendous momentum by the outbreak of the war. The Civic and Commercial Association of Denver is urging a movement whereby employers will agree to pay full wages to employees, but allow them one working day off each week, provided they work their gardens on that day. Under the auspices of the Denver Mothers' Congress, 50,000 packages of seeds are being distributed without cost to the school children.

Mrs. Cecilia Ward Shea, a prominent civic worker, has inaugurated a project, advocating that the state itself turn farmer, and lease or rent approximately 15,000,000 acres of tillable land in the state which has never been cultivated, subletting this to families who would come into the state, she believes, if they were assured of ground to farm, at a low rental.

FEATURE STORY FOR THIS DAY BY UNITED PRESS

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
PARIS, April 24.—When Americans return to Paris, after the war, they will probably have pointed out to them the former headquarters of the American Ambulance army during the big war. Today these headquarters are extremely active and busy.

It is the American Ambulance Field Service. The "Commander in Chief," directing the work of hundreds of American youths who drive swift American ambulances on all French battle fronts is A. Platt Andrew, formerly of La Porte, Ind., late of Gloucester, Mass., and former Assistant-Secretary of the U. S. Treasury in Washington.

None of the commanders-in-chief of the big armies in the field know more about their forces every minute of the day than does the former Hoosier about his little American army. He knows, by daily reports, every important move made by the hundreds of cars in the field; how many cars are in and out of commission, how many have been wrecked or destroyed by shells, how many cars are en route from America and how much help the American service can give the French army next week or next month.

Many Colleges Represented
Almost every part of America is represented somewhere in the rambling old Eighteenth Century mansion which houses Andrew's headquarters. Aside from contributions from many sources, more than seventy American universities and colleges have sent their students to save French life on the battle fields. Never less than 500 ambulances are engaged in active service but over 600 have crossed the Atlantic and have been put into commission since the war began. Between seventy and eighty have been destroyed. The first car to leave headquarters for the front is still partly in commission.

Two big garages and workshops attached to the Paris headquarters repair and re-equip the American cars when the damage is bad. If it is trivial, the work is done by moving repair shops on the field.

A few hours before the United Press correspondent called at headquarters a message had arrived that three cars had been destroyed by a single shell on the Somme. Within a short time three newly repaired cars were on their way to replace the wrecks.

Cited For Valor
The young American college men who enlist in America for the ambulance service have to date received 78 citations in French army orders for valor. The decorations include two Military Medals and 76 Croix de Guerre. Two drivers have been killed by shells, some have died of pneumonia and many have been wounded. Among the latter is William Barber of Toledo, O., who has recovered and returned to the front.

The American cars are known in almost every scene of campaign on the French front—on the Yser, Aisne, Somme, in Champagne, at Verdun, in the Argonne, Woivre, Lorraine, Alsace and in the Balkans.

There is an American atmosphere about the headquarters of the Service in Paris. Located in Passy, one of the oldest parts of the city, on the Seine and within shouting distance of the famous Eiffel tower, the building is surrounded by a ten acre park in which Benjamin Franklin first made his tests with the lightning rod. The structure contains the offices of the executives of the service in the upper portion and below typical college dormitories where the young Americans rest and sleep while in training for sterner duty at the front. Notwithstanding the German submarine blockade more of these young Americans and more cars arrived here in February than during any other month. The number of men was 112, from states as far west as California, and the cars were 140.

American Funds
The work of the Ambulance Service is carried on by American funds. But all contributions to date have been small though numerous, it was learned today. To face the big campaigns in which the French army will soon be involved the Service will need great help from the American people. "We can use all the money, ambulances and men, the folks at home can send," was the word given to the United Press in Passy today.

LAWRENCE, Kan., April 27.—After being completely buried at the bottom of an 18-foot ditch for 20 minutes, Wayne Richardson, a laborer from Clay Center, who was working on the construction work in the draining district of North Lawrence, was rescued alive without apparent injury one day recently.

VOICE OF SANTA ANA GOES TO PRESIDENT

Chamber of Commerce Protests Use of National Anthem in Medleys

The voice of Santa Ana is to be heard in Washington, D. C. That voice as represented by letter is going right on to Woodrow Wilson, or his secretary, and is going to be raised in protest of the intermingling of the national anthem with unpatriotic selections arranged in medleys.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their last meeting discussed in full the effect of the use of the Star Spangled Banner and Columbia in medleys is having in creating in a measure disrespect for the popular patriotic airs. Walter Eden was appointed as a committee to draft a letter of protest to President Wilson. The letter today went forward signed by every member of the directorate. It is as follows:

Santa Ana, Cal., April 27, 1917.
Hon. Woodrow Wilson,
President of the United States,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: We, the directors of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, believe that the American public on every proper occasion desires to show its patriotism. It has been a custom of our people, even in times of peace, to rise and remain standing wherever assembled during the playing of the Star Spangled Banner and Columbia.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that short bars of these patriotic pieces of music are frequently played by bands or orchestras before public assemblies, especially in moving picture shows (now the most popular places of amusement) as a medley or with variations so that the rendition of it is so short that an audience is often contented whether to rise or not. We have noticed frequently, when such a medley was in progress, that when the bars of the Star Spangled Banner or Columbia were reached that a few people would rise and others would remain seated. The people seem hardly to know what to do.

We feel that the custom which prevails among our people of rising while these popular airs are being played, is very dear to the great American heart and should be preserved; and if musicians are permitted to continue to make them a part of a medley or to play them with variations, the habit of rising may become entirely obsolete, even when it is rendered alone and in full.

We wish to suggest the propriety of appropriate legislation to preserve this beautiful custom and to prohibit any musician, band or orchestra from playing or any music publisher from publishing the Star Spangled Banner and Columbia in a medley or with variations.

WINTERSBURG MACHINERY IN MILL DAMAGED

WINTERSBURG, April 27.—The Reuther Feed Mill machinery suffered a breakdown Tuesday from some unknown cause, and a whole set of knives were destroyed. The repairs will cost two or three hundred dollars. Wednesday morning a monkey wrench which had been used late the evening before and laid upon a belt and forgotten was ground through when the mill started up. Happily, the machinery was not injured, but all kinds of things were done to the wrench.

Leon Moore now holds the championship for pole vault at the Ocean View school, his record made Wednesday being 9 ft. 4 in. John Clemens, an eighth grade boy several years ago, was the champion until now, with a record of 9 ft. 3 in. Young Moore is a fine athlete, weighs 170 pounds and his friends expect he will make a vault of 9½ feet with practice.

$60,000,000 WILL BE REAPED FROM BUMPER CROP OF TOMATOES

Auto Club Estimates 180,000
People Will Come Southward in 1917-18 Season

BY ALBERT MARPLE

Is Southern California ready for a flood of tourists such as she has never known? If not, she would do well to prepare, for notwithstanding all the war talk and action the arrow points to the greatest tourist season in 1917-18 that this part of the country has ever known. If we're not ready to meet this influx we will be the losers. Listen—

Comparing the tourist crop of other years and taking into consideration tourist call this year in comparison to that of years gone by the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California "figures" that about 45,000 parties or 180,000 people will wend their way westward and southward in 1917-18.

During the 1916-17 tourist season more than $40,000,000 was left in Southern California by tourists, and according to the most reliable figures, "dope" says that during the coming season more than $60,000,000 will be deposited in our coffers by motorists and others from northern and eastern sections. The fame of this section as a motoring mecca has spread far and wide and in addition to many tourists, whose faces we have never seen, thousands who were here last year are planning on "repeating the trick." With the popularity of this section spreading constantly and with the increased number of automobiles coming into general use the tourist "crop" to Southern California cannot help but

GENERAL LEONARD WOOD, long commander of the Department of the East, has been transferred to the new Department of the South-east, with headquarters at Charleston, S. C. Many of his friends believe he has been punished by the administration for his activities in connection with the campaign for preparedness. General Wood has said nothing at all further than that being a soldier he would obey orders. Because he invited Theodore Roosevelt to speak to the citizens training at the Plattsburg camp last year Secretary of War Garrison rebuked him.

experience a steady growth. The following figures, based on very fair calculations, will give some idea as to how much the tourist serves to make business in this section "prosperous." It naturally follows, then, that while the tourist is with us we should treat him well so that he may feel like accepting our invitation to "come again."

It is estimated that for hotel fare alone the visiting motorists in 1916-17 spent in our section about $27,000,000. The second largest item was gasoline, and for this much-needed commodity they spent about $2,025,000, while for lubricating oil during their stay, these sight-seeing friends of ours paid out something like $198,000.

Careful figuring shows that the amount spent for auto repairing while the tourists were in this part of the Golden State is not to be overlooked. It amounted to about $4,350,000, while a like sum is spent for tires and tubes. Then in addition to all this comes the "incidental" expense, which everyone knows is always large when one is touring. To a certain extent, while one is on a vacation, expense is not considered, the object being to have the most enjoyable outing possible in the limited space of time.

Yes, these tourists made mighty fine use of our good roads while they were with us. Figures compiled by the Auto Club show that each party traveled on an average of 4500 miles during its thirty-day stay in this section. As it is figured that about 45,000 parties visited this section it will be seen that the total distance traveled was about 202,500,000 miles. They evidently believe in enjoying a good thing while they have access to it. With regard to this year's crop of visitors the touring department of the Automobile Club reports as follows:

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS NOTES FROM ORANGE CITY

ORANGE, April 27.—Wedding bells chimed for a popular Orange man, Robert E. Gross, whose marriage to Miss Leslie Wilson was solemnized at the home of the bride on West 39th street, Los Angeles.

The home was very handsomely decorated with seasonable blossoms, roses, sweet peas and carnations forming an attractive combination.

The bride and groom were unattended at the ceremony, the bride being charmingly attired in a gown of Copenhagen georgette crepe, embroidered in gold, over blue silk. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross came to Orange immediately after the ceremony, postponing their honeymoon until a later date.

The groom is assistant manager of the Orange County Fruit Exchange, with which he has been connected for a number of years. He is well known to the citrus industry here and is universally liked by his associates. His bride is a former Santa Ana girl who has many friends in this section as well as her home city. Congratulations will be theirs in full measure.

Each guest pieced a quilt block on which she inscribed her name, and then spent the rest of the afternoon with fancy work, a little business, but mostly conversation.

Mrs. Marie Scott was admitted as a member. Mrs. Henry West of Orange, Mrs. Marie Axt and Mrs. G. E. Wright of Santa Ana were guests of the club. At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served in patriotic style on plates, hand-painted with the national emblems, to the guests and the following members: Mrs. Goddickson, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Bogart, Mrs. G. DECLINE IN PRICE OF CABBAGE SEEN

FULLERTON, April 27.—A heavy shipment of cabbage which will manifest itself by a depression in the market, will begin week after next, according to William Benchley, of the Benchley Fruit Company.

Combined with the beginning of heavy shipping here, is the commencement of consignments from Florida, which will tend to lighten western shipments to New York, Mr. Benchley said.

"The extraordinary high prices which have been paid for cabbage this season have been due to a freeze in the south where considerable cabbage is grown," said Benchley.

"Normally the south begins to ship early, but the severe cold snap practically ruined their first crop and they are just now gathering the second. In addition there has been a scarcity of cold storage cabbage in the East.

"As the Florida shipments grow heavier, far eastern shipments from the West will lighten but the difference of the freight will in itself make a handsome profit."

Benchley said he did not look for the market to go below $40 this year. Last year the market was considered high when it touched $43 and the average was a shade below $30, but this year it has soared past the $100 mark.

"Southern Prepared Paint" Is the best for professional painter as well as amateur, because:

1. It contains only the best materials, selected as only an experienced and honorable maker can do.
2. White Lead as sold today, alone with Linseed Oil, makes a fugitive paint. It will decay and disintegrate rapidly.
3. "Southern Prepared Paint" has been made from the beginning to give better results than are possible otherwise. It must not be associated with cheap imitations and "special" mixtures.
4. It is mixed and ground by machinery better than it is possible for any one to do by hand.
5. It is made by a reputable manufacturer. It is therefore no experiment and you take no risk in using it.

SOLONS NOT TO ADJOURN UNTIL MONDAY

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—Although officially the legislature was supposed to adjourn at noon today, Speaker Young of the Assembly notified Governor Stephens that there would be no adjournment before Monday, with the probability of night sessions today and tomorrow. The clocks in both houses were stopped at noon.

Among the resolutions adopted by the Senate is one memorializing the President to invite Arthur Balfour, General Joffre and Marquis Pierre de Chamberlain, Lafayette's grandson, to visit the Pacific Coast, claiming such a visit would have great patriotic effect.

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—After a sixty-day grind the Forty-second California Legislature is expected to adjourn today or tomorrow, since die. This legislature will go down in history as one of little constructive work. The measures of real importance passed by the two branches could almost be counted on ten fingers. Two of the most important—land colonization and social insurance—were hold-overs from the 1915 session.

Less than one-fifth of the bills introduced will go on the statute books. Close to 1800 proposed laws never reached the floor of either house.

There was only one, real, genuine fight during the whole session—one that stirred the state from one end to another and that was brought on by the Rominger anti-saloon, anti-ardent liquor bill. After a spectacular fight in the Senate, the bill was passed by that branch only to be beaten by the Assembly in a fight equally as spectacular. Practically nothing was done by the Legislature in the way of liquor regulation, though at the outset booze legislation occupied the main spotlight.

Labor Wins Over Capital
Labor scored over capital through the defeat of the compulsory mediation bill and the carrying of the anti-injunction bill. The latter gives organized labor the right to conduct peaceful strikes, boycotts and picketing without danger of interference through a court injunction. The bill was fought bitterly by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Brisk attacks on the Fish and Game Commission marked the opening weeks of the session but this fight soon ended with the commission all to the good. An attack on the state reclamation board made more headway.

Absence of constructive work was due, in a measure, to the retrenchment policy announced right off the bat by Governor Stephens, and occasioned by the war. It requires money to "do things" and there were comparatively few appropriations. More than a million dollars that otherwise could have been voted for extensions of state institutions and other purposes for development of the state was appropriated for a state council of defense and a state defense guard—military bodies.

For Land Colony Law
One of the biggest appropriations—$250,000—was voted to carry out a land colonization plan, a proposition stamped by President Breed of the Senate as one of the biggest things before the session.

In accordance with the recommendation of former Governor Johnson the Legislature voted to give the people a chance to determine whether they favor a system of compulsory health insurance—the premium cost to be divided among the employer, employee and state. California is one of the first states to take up this important feature of social insurance.

Regulation of the kelp harvesting industry is another big step taken by the Legislature—a bigger step than most of the lawmakers realized when they voted for the bill. The vast kelp beds in the vicinity of San Diego yield valuable chemicals and the bill passed by the Legislature declares state ownership of the industry. Regulation and conservation of the kelp is to be carried out upon recommendations of the Scripps Institute for Biological Research.

Tax Limit Bill
Clyde L. Seavey, former chairman of the State Tax Commission, considers of great importance the "five per cent tax limit bill." Under this measure a city or county cannot raise by taxation in any one year an aggregate amount that would represent an increase of more than five per cent over the preceding year. This law will have a tendency to check the soaring of taxes, Seavey says, which, of course, will be a big thing for the people.

On the whole the session was tiresome, unduly prolonged and of comparatively little value. However, many figure that it was the more useful through the very fact that it didn't accomplish much in the way of law-making. This is the view of those who believe the statute books already are swimming with useless laws.

FINDS BALD HEADS BUT THEY DECLINE TO PURCHASE LIDS

Toupee Agent Makes Rounds At the Courthouse, But Has Miserable Luck

The bald-headed men at the courthouse were dodging today, for a toupee agent was after them with a lasso.

He tried his best to be serious about it, but the concerned county officers insisted on making a joke out of a matter of vital importance.

J. F. Kinley was responsible for the raid on the courthouse. His shiny top had caused the agent to tackle him. Kinley thought the easiest way to get rid of the man was to turn him loose on the courthouse.

"It is the bald-headed place this side of the Rockies," said J. F., and he no sooner had the words said than the agent's coat-tails flapped around the corner.

Judge West and Judge Thomas were holding court and the agent did not get a chance to look them over.

But Probation Officer Scott was in his office. Scott was all-fired busy, he said, and he shot the toupee peddler down to the basement. He said the basement was fairly alive with bald-heads. There was Sheriff Jackson, Judge Cox, Deputy Sheriff Charlie Maxwell and maybe more.

The sheriff put one of the things on, and paraded around the building. It was too red for his complexion, and it was cute and curly. It made Judge Cox envious, but the agent did not get within a mile of persuading the judge.

"It may look all right," said the sheriff, "but it feels like a case of measles," and he turned it back into the agent's collection.

Somebody sent the toupee man to the clerk's office, but one glance at Williams convinced the agent that he would have to wait a few years before considering him even a prospect. Same luck across at Auditor Jerome's office. Treasurer Joplin is well along in years, but he is not the bald-headed sort. The man expects to make a date with Assessor Sleeper later on, but he will come to grief.

Deputy District Attorney Menton was too busy to try one of the things on, and West and Koepsel showed no signs of being prospectively interested.

The agent has just about given up in despair.

TUSTIN FOLK IN AUTO RIDE TO HOLLYWOOD

The members of the Tustin Household Economic Section were entertained Wednesday by Mrs. H. Romer at her new home in Hollywood at an all-day meeting.

The ladies were taken in four automobiles by W. L. Leiby, Charles Bowman, Byron Johnson, and S. W. Stanley.

When they arrived at the Hollywood home, Mr. Romer, as host, took charge of the gentlemen and they were hospitably entertained at a sumptuous early dinner in the breakfast room in order to have the afternoon free for a visit to an interesting ball game and other places of interest to the men.

Mrs. Romer presided at the long dinner table, beautifully decorated. The usual economical luncheon was done away with and the menu comprised many good things.

The business of the club was transacted around the dinner table. Mrs. Romer's fine Victrola with many lovely records furnished part of the afternoon's entertainment.

When the party started home they were accompanied around Hollywood by Mr. and Mrs. Romer and were shown some beautiful surroundings of Los Angeles.

In the party were Mrs. W. L. Leiby, Mrs. B. H. Sharpless, Mrs. Oscar Leiby, Mrs. E. M. Nealey, Mrs. Cood Adams, Mrs. J. E. Paul, Mrs. Byron Johnson, Mrs. Charles Bowman, Mrs. S. W. Stanley, Mrs. N. Beisel and Mrs. Fred Culver. Mrs. Fred Beckman was also a house guest of her sister, Mrs. Romer.

MEMBERS OF TUSTIN PRESBYTERIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL ENJOY SOCIAL

The young ladies' and young men's classes of the Tustin Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed a happy social time Monday evening when they were entertained by Miss Lydia Gaby at the home of Mrs. Sherman Stevens.

The business of reorganizing the young ladies' class first occupied their attention and they adopted the former name of the class, "Alkanis." The young men were taken into the organization and the officers were re-elected. Leslie Talmage was elected treasurer in place of Miss Bliven, who recently left for the east.

The initiation of the young men into the order started the fun of the social time. The ceremony was quite an elaborate one and proved a source of merriment to the young people. There was also time for amusing games.

Brick ice cream and a variety of delicious cake were served. Those present were Misses Margaret Tingley, Grace Hatfield, Ethel Alderman, Clara Thorman, Gertrude Utt, Dorothy Utt, Grace McCarthy, Lydia Gaby, Lena Ebel, Miss Shields and Mrs. Effie Patty; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Stevens, Mrs. Charles Smith, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. McDougal, Leslie Talmage, Charles Logan, Badger Tatum, and Theodore Gaby.

'WITCH' AND 'DARKEY' DUDE' WIN PRIZES AT MASQUERADE AFFAIR

At the social dance and masquerade given by Bud Hannaford and Vern Hillyard last Friday night, K. P. hall was filled to its capacity.

The prize-winning ladies' costume was worn by Miss Beulah White, who represented a witch. The gentlemen's prize was won by Ira Leck, a darkey dude. There were many other costumes well made up.

Smith's orchestra of Santa Ana, furnished the music for the dance, which continued until a late hour. Delicious punch was served during the entire evening.

Masks were discarded after the grand march at about ten o'clock. It is planned to have another evening of the same kind in two weeks.

TUSTIN BOYS WIN IN INTERMEDIATE GAME

The ball team of the Tustin Y. M. C. A. clubs played Monday afternoon with the Santa Ana High School Intermediates and the Tustin boys won the game 6 to 0. The game on the part of the Tustin boys was without a flaw. The pitching of Perry Callahan was especially worthy of mention. The boys all demonstrated the fact that they are full-fledged ball players.

A WOMAN'S TROUBLE. Now 93 Years Old.

Oakland, Cal.—"For the past 20 years we have used Dr. Pierce's remedies in our family. My aunt, who is now 93 years of age, has used no other medicine and attributes her splendid health to Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which she takes regularly. She used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during the critical time of life. She had been in bed for five years and the doctors said she would never be cured. ASKING PROHIBITION AS WAR MEASURE

W. C. T. U. Holds Good Meeting at Home of Mrs. Vera Smith

The regular meeting of the Tustin W. C. T. U. held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vera Smith was a very enthusiastic one. Most of the women present had attended the recent county convention and received an inspiration from the interesting proceedings.

The recording secretary read a communication from the state and national W. C. T. U. presidents requesting that the Tustin Union send a night message to President Wilson asking for national prohibition as a war measure. This is to be regarded as a special plea from mothers on account of their sons. The motion carried and the secretary was instructed to send the message.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Sarah Brown, after scripture reading and prayer, roll call and minutes. The subject for the afternoon was "Purity," led by Mrs. J. O. Preble.

Extracts from a pamphlet entitled "Work for the Promotion of Purity," were read by the different ladies. This work is to be done by literature and art, sermons and lectures, elevation of the standard of journalism, public advertising, books and magazines, censorship of moving pictures, vaudeville and other plays.

The state law reads: "Anything is indictable by common law, which is an offense to the innocent or the weak." Selections were read by the different ones present on purity in literature, art and ideals.

A vocal solo was sung by Mrs. Vera Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Ladieu, "O Make Me Pure," and piano-player records were enjoyed, such as "The Old Oaken Bucket" and patriotic selections.

Mrs. C. A. Miller was called upon to tell some interesting features of the recent county convention. It was decided to invite Mrs. Doughty, state organizer, to come to Tustin for the purpose of re-organizing the Y. P. B.

Five members of the Tustin Union were appointed county superintendents—Mrs. C. A. Miller, county press work; Mrs. W. L. Leiby, social meetings and red letter days; Mrs. L. A. Cock, the California Home; Mrs. Harry Lewis, Union Signal, and Mrs. W. A. Jones, co-operation with the Y. M. C. A.—Mrs. Sarah Brown is assistant county treasurer and Mrs. Ella Brown is corresponding secretary.

The next meeting will be held May 10 at the home of Mrs. C. A. Miller, the subject, "Anti-Narcotics," led by Mrs. Miller.

Delegates to the state convention will be appointed at the next meeting.

THIEF SPURNS MONEY, TAKES FRESH EGGS

YONKERS, N. Y., April 27.—It was not cigars, candy, fruit or even money lying around loose that tempted a burglar who entered and looted the store of Joseph Kopper, near the post office, but fifteen dozen eggs labelled "strictly fresh," the police are informed.

Policeman Ahearn found the door of the store open, and summoned Kopper, who, after a hasty inventory, missed nothing until he found some excelsior strewn over the floor. Then he found that fifteen dozen eggs were gone.

TUSTIN CHAMBER BACKS WORKING OF PRISONERS

At the monthly meeting of the Tustin Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday night, the opinion that the county prisoners should work prevailed in the minds of those who were present. In the discussion of the matter it was argued that it is better for the prisoners themselves to be in the open air and right that they should work rather than lie idle in jail and have their board paid by workers outside.

There was no one present who had statistics to show whether it paid the county to work them in the recent experiment of using the prisoners on the county roads. Some faithful workers have developed from using them on the forestry work.

A motion was made and carried that it was the sense of the meeting that the county prisoners should be used on work for the county.

The meeting was conducted by the president, I. L. Marchant and the minutes of previous meeting were read by the secretary, S. W. Stanley, and approved.

The noise of motorcycles with their cut-outs was again discussed as to whether it would be in the province of the constable to arrest offenders.

The matter of home guards for Tustin was brought up. No action was taken, as there seemed no immediate necessity for it. Should occasion arise a special meeting will be called.

DANISH WOMAN REGAINS HEALTH

Tells Everybody What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Her.

Chicago, Ill.—"It gives me great pleasure to let others know that I improved in health with the first bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; after taking two bottles I am entirely well. Before taking it I could not do any kind of work without a pain in my back as I suffered so much from inflammation. I had headaches, was always tired and no appetite. Words cannot express my gratitude for the good your medicine has done me, and through me to my family. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women suffering from female troubles, particularly to Danish women."—Mrs. META DAMGAARD-MATZAN, 2137 Kimball Ave., Chicago, Ill.

It is positively true that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

WESTMINSTER STEPPING FROM AUTO, WOMAN IS INJURED

Machine Ran Over Her, But Her Injuries Proved Not to Be Serious

WESTMINSTER, April 26.—Mrs. H. H. Vogt returned home on Tuesday after a week spent at the Garden Grove hospital, the result of a fall from the Long Beach stage on her return from Santa Ana. As she neared the corner near her home a week ago she saw some of their stock out, and in her haste did not wait for the machine to come to a full stop. She fell to the pavement, a wheel passed over her and badly bruised one limb. No blame was attached to the driver.

Attend Y. M. C. A.

The final examination of the local Y. M. C. A. on "The Men Who Dared," was held at the school house last Friday evening, conducted by the leader, Herman Thompson, who took them on Saturday afternoon to the track meet at Santa Ana, and banquet at the Methodist church basement. Those enjoying this trip were Charles Price, William Kerr, Max Fuller, Irvine Thompson, Glenn Byram, Wilbur Byram.

Thompson's machine carried a U. S. banner when he left it at the church but on starting home he found some patriotically inclined individual had confiscated it. Probably he needed it.

Miss Elsie Clark of Garden Grove spent Saturday night with Miss Sylvia Edwards, returning home on the next afternoon.

Willard Jenkins of Artesia visited Tuesday at the home of his cousin, Mr. L. E. Rich.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rich and mother, Mrs. M. L. Rich, of Long Beach, spent Wednesday at the home of L. E. Rich. They carried home with them 529 young chicks just out of the incubator. Mr. Rich has kept two incubators running for the past twelve weeks, hatching over 2000 chicks for himself and others.

Happy Workers
The Happy Workers met Wednesday with Mrs. W. T. Wardle, spending the time in conversation and fancy work. Luncheon of sandwiches, jelly, salad, pie and coffee was served. After scripture reading and prayer by Rev. W. T. Wardle, a business session conducted by the new president, Mrs. T. Hosack, was held. It was

What to Do When Backache Comes On

"Foley Kidney Pills have done me more good than $150.00 worth of other medicine," Chas. N. Fox, Hiram, N. Y.

When backache comes on and it seems as if you can't stand the pain and pressure across the small of your back, hurry to your drugist and get relief through a box of Foley Kidney Pills. They will stop the cause of that pain very quickly, spur the sluggish kidneys to regular action, enable them to throw the poisons out of the blood. They will get rid of pain and rheumatism for you, quiet your nerves, stop your backache, and lumber up your stiff joints and sore muscles.

Frank W. Sherman, Lacona, N. Y., writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble, had a tired feeling in my back, did not have any ambition and felt all tired out. I used Foley Kidney Pills and in a few days began to feel better, and now I have entirely recovered."

and get a clear vision of the possibilities of Fruit and Nut growing without irrigation in the Templeton-Paso Robles district—a swell place for a home—money making opportunities undreamed of a few years back, a combination of desirable localities in the state, these are reasons why so many men from Orange county and other Southern California points are investing there.

10 acre lots, best orchard zone, near town, fine soil for almonds, walnuts, pears or prunes—all money makers—$90.00 to $175.00 per acre.

10 acre lots, young orchards just coming into bearing, $300.00 to $400.00 per acre.

Here are two good ones, combinations suitable for dairying, hog raising and fruit growing, ½ mile from high school.

30 acres, ½ in alfalfa, ½ in fine pear, prune or walnut land, $200.00 per acre.

43 acres adjoining and in the same combination and price, the alfalfa land owns electric pumping plant and modern cement pipe line system.

By order of the President the country has been divided into six military districts to take the place of the four established for many years, and the appointments of generals to command these have interested the nation. The most important change was that of General Leonard Wood, from the Department of the East to the new Department of the Southeast, a change which many of the general's friends declare is due to politics. He is to be replaced in the Department of the East by General J. Franklin Bell. General Clarence R. Edwards goes to the newly created Northeastern Department. General Hunter Liggett will command the Western Department. General Thomas H. Barry will command the Central Department, and General John J. Pershing will remain in charge of the Southern Department.

agreed to economize in the "eats" by serving not over four dishes. Any committee serving more than this will be fined twenty-five cents per member.

The revised list of serving committees was read, one new committee having been formed, making five in all.

As there are eleven meetings during the year each committee will serve twice. It was decided that at the eleventh meeting in November, each committee furnish one article of food, and each member may invite husband, gentleman friend or relative. At the suggestion of the president, a motion was passed to ask each of the five committees to furnish two suggestions at the next meeting, as to ways of earning money during the coming year.

Including several children there were forty present. Those from Garden Grove were Mrs. Schneider, Mrs. Simons, Mrs. Carbine and son, Mrs. Castieman, Mrs. Donelson and Mrs. Swayze.

Mrs. James Kerr, Miss Florence Kerr and Miss Lucille Sudow went to Los Angeles Monday for a visit with relatives.

Lawrence Stone, of Pasadena, visited his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stone from Sunday till Tuesday. His father, Mr. M. Stone has gone to Utah and taken up 220 acres of land.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Craig came down from their mountain ranch Monday, visiting Tuesday at the home of W. J. Edwards.

Mrs. J. L. Madden, of Stockton, is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. H. B. Anderson.

The place which has been occupied for several years by Whitney and family has been sold and possession will be given soon.

J. J. Stoves has bought back the lease of his place from Mr. Mills, including the stock and eight cows purchased by the latter. They are moving from Long Beach this week and glad to get back to their old home.

Rev. S. A. Thompson and Rev. J. H. Henry at dinner Wednesday.

Misses Jennie and Annie Nankervis and Leora Blakey spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Arthur Schnitzer at Garden Grove.

Mrs. Mary Carlyle and daughter Virginia, who have been spending some time in the east, are visiting Mrs. J. F. Patterson this week. Owing to the illness of little Virginia on their return to Santa Ana several weeks ago, this is their first visit here. Mrs. Carlyle has sold her ranch here to J. T. Worthy. The present occupants, Mrs. Ogden and family, will remain until their year is up.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parr, Mr. Parr, Sr., and Fred Parr, made a trip to Riverside Friday, spending Saturday at Perris. After visiting relatives in Los Angeles they returned home Sunday evening.

Rev. S. A. Thompson, pastor of the M. E. church, and Rev. J. H. Henry, held services here every evening last week and are continuing them through this week. Mr. Henry was pastor of the church here and at Garden Grove twenty-nine years ago and still preaches and sings with his old-time vigor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Larter were among those entertained Wednesday night at the high school by the class in domestic science.

Mrs. Mary Griffith and Mrs. Jennie Wilde of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Maria Harris of Santa Ana, visited Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. M. J. Larter, mother of Mrs. Griffith and Mrs. Harris.

Phil Trenary has been suffering from blood poisoning in one hand and is under the physician's care.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clements and family of Long Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Hadley and son of Los Angeles were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

Mr. Mills has been on the sick list for several days.

Miss Fay Weinschenck was among the guests at a dinner party given by Miss Minnie Ross at her home in Los Angeles, to some of the Normal school girls who had been her pupils in Huntington Beach high school. Miss Weinschenck remained till Sunday.

Mr. Mahan has contracted with the cannery to raise twenty-two acres of tomatoes the coming season.

Phil McClintock and son James made a business trip to Santa Ana Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig moved back to Westminster last week from Garden Grove. This seems to be a good place to come back to as this is the second time they have returned. They are not the only ones who find it hard to stay away from Westminster.

SINGING DOG OF FORT MYER DEAD

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Word has been received here of the death at Fort Bliss, Tex., of Mike, the singing dog mascot of Battery A of Fort Meyer, the army post just outside the national capital. Mike, as the battery's mascot, has for years been known to army men in many sections of the country. Mike was run over by an automobile on a road near El Paso. Mike was buried with full military honors and his grave on the Texas border was appropriately marked by the soldiers of the battery.

WHERE TO TROUT AND TO REACH POINTS

BY ALBERT MARPLE

The other day we noticed a fellow leaving a sporting goods house and in his hands was a rod and reel, while upon his face was a smile of anticipation which simply will not be "scraped away." After a moment's thought we remembered that it will soon be May 1st, the day when the "big things are on." Even now the motorist-angler is beginning to tune up the old "boat," preparatory to the long-to-be-remembered trout trip and the question of where to go and how to get there is this moment puzzling the brains of many motor owners.

With the aim of eliminating a lot of worry on the part of the motorist as to this "where and how," the Automobile Club of Southern California has carefully gone into this question of direction and distances, condition of road and chances for real sport, results of which investigation it cheerfully passes along to the motorists of this section, be they members of the club or not. There are so many streams in this section in which there is good fishing, especially during the early part of the season, that it is rather hard for the angler who is not acquainted in "these parts" to decide just where to go. However, during the first month or so of this season good sport will be found at any of these streams. As to where the "best" fishing is to be obtained, only the opening of the season will reveal. A number of popular fishing streams are located in the mountains lying north of the foothill boulevard. The western terminus of the highway is at Pasadena. Running east to Azusa, 24 miles from Los Angeles, the motorist reaches the San Gabriel river. There is good fishing on this stream from the bridge up, although generally the fish are small, a good road paralleling the creek, for eight miles.

Cold Water Canyon Promising
To get further up stream the motorist parks his car at the end of the stream and continues on foot. The West Fork and Coldwater Canyon, tributaries of this stream, are reached by stage or "footpower." Chances in these streams are reported good.

Continuing along the foothill boulevard to Upland we come to the San Antonio stream, where fishing, if any, will probably be poor. The next stream is Little Creek, 60 miles. There are two roads into this canyon, one branching north at Etiwanda and continuing through Grapeland; the other is by way of San Bernardino and Cajon canyon. This latter road will be opened about May 1st. The Etiwanda road is now available.

Continuing east we come to San Bernardino, north of which is located the Crest Route fishing country, including Little Bear and Big Bear lakes. There are three ways to get into this section—Waterman Canyon, Miss Creek and Victorville. The Victorville road is now in good shape as far as Dobbie, but from that point there is considerable mud. There are 35 miles of desert road on this trip. The Waterman Canyon road is open as far as Little Bear Lake and it is expected that the Crest Route will be open about June 1st. Clark's grade (Mill Creek) will probably be opened about May 1st. Besides the two lakes in this section there are the following streams: Little Mojave, Bear Creek, Hook Creek, Houston Creek, Deep Creek and Holcomb Creek. The motor road does not run to any of these streams, and if the angler wants to "tackle" them he will have to "shaggit" for a greater or lesser distance. In any event he will be well repaid for his trouble.

Lying north of Los Angeles is the Big Tujunga, 25 miles, which promises good sport. Take San Fernando road through Tropic, Glendale, out Verdugo road through Montrose, Little Lands to Sunland. From this point branch north over good dirt road to the creek. Fishing is better up stream. To get to the Ventura county streams take San Fernando boulevard to a point beyond Saugus where the state highway continues north. The motorist should continue west toward Ventura.

Ventura Streams Look Good

The first stream encountered is the Castaic Creek, 39 miles. Park car near road and continue upstream on foot. Fair fishing from the main highway. The next stream is Piru Creek, eight miles beyond. Chances good this year. The Agua Blanca Creek (Upper Piru) may be reached by trail. Farther along is the Lower Sespe, 59 miles. Fishing promises very good. Road continues quite a way up this creek. A little farther on we encounter the Santa Paula stream. A road runs for miles up this stream, eventually leaving it to branch to Nordhoff. Still farther along is the Ventura river, 84 miles. Big chances for good fishing here. The upper tributaries of the Ventura will be reached this year by a new "high and dry" road which parallels streams. An eight-mile hike will take the angler from Wheeler's Camp to the Upper Sespe, where there is always good sport. All of the Ventura county streams look very good, and along them are many fine camping places.

West of Los Angeles we find the Topancho Canyon creek and the Malibu. These are reached through Santa Monica by boulevard, thence via good dirt road along the coast. Topancho is first reached; some say there will be a little fishing here. In the Malibu fishing is always good. Up to this time it has not been learned whether or not this stream will be open to the public. If opened, there will probably be a charge made for fishing.

So, Mr. Motorist-Angler, go to it. The chances are all in your favor. The touring department at the headquarters of the club or any of its branches will be glad to furnish the prospective angler with any further "last minute" information, if he will but call and make his wishes known.

CITY FARM HANDS NEEDED, IS VIEW

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—"Most people think the raising of a surplus of food is a rural problem. It is nothing of the sort. It is a city problem."

That's the declaration of Dean Thomas F. Hunt of the University of California College of Agriculture and members of the food preparedness committee of the state defense council. He declared that the big cities must turn a portion of their population into farm hands.

"Every farmer is working at top speed; he is using every ounce of his muscle and every dollar of his capital," Hunt asserted addressing members of the council. "But without the aid of the cities they are powerless. There are about 250,000 persons in the state engaged in agriculture. There are a million others in other gainful pursuits. In the United States as a whole one out of every three persons is doing farm work. In California the ratio is five to one."

"This is not time to discuss reasons or causes. Suffice it to say that, assuming three years of war, one quarter of a million people now in the cities of California, will be needed to win the fight for democracy. Fifty thousand will be needed for the army and navy and 200,000 for the farms. Twenty thousand are needed at this moment."

"Unless we expect the allies to win this war for us, one out of every four men in the cities must be changed into a farmer. I have just finished an agricultural inquiry in thirty-seven counties. Everywhere I find the demand for 'man power'—all kinds of power, horse, gasoline, and mule power."

BANKS PREPARED FOR ANY WAR EMERGENCY

Federal Reserve Institutions Could Issue Billion in Notes Quickly

NEW YORK, April 27.—In the event of an emergency, requiring an expansion in the nation's currency, the federal reserve banks could issue notes to the amount of $1,000,000,000. Attention is called to this fact by the Federal Reserve Board in Washington in its March bulletin which points out the "preparedness" measures taken by the board in the way of accumulating a large supply of notes in Washington and in the vaults of the twelve Federal Reserve agents, ready to be issued at a moment's notice. In this connection, reference is made to the delays experienced by the banks at the outbreak of the war when there was a sudden rush of application for notes issued under the Aldrich-Vreeland emergency currency act. When the Federal Reserve board was first organized, it directed the printing of $500,000,000 of notes; and later it raised the amount to $700,000,000. Very recently it increased the total to $900,000,000, in addition to the notes outstanding, and the bureau of engraving and printing is working at full speed upon the new currency, so as to keep well abreast of any conceivable demand that may be made.

In placing the note-issuing capacity of the federal reserve banks at $1,000,000,000, the federal reserve board makes the following calculation: "The twelve banks hold reserve money to the extent of $512,000,000. The necessary reserve holdings against deposits are, roughly speaking, $237,000,000. They have thus $275,000,000 of free gold which can be used as a 40 per cent reserve against notes, thereby permitting an issue of $687,500,000. In addition to this they hold today over $112,000,000 of free commercial paper, available as collateral for the issuance of federal reserve notes over and above the paper now pledged to protect outstanding notes.

By withdrawing from federal reserve agents an equal amount of the gold held by the latter and putting this paper in the place of it they would, after deducting the reserves required by law to be held against notes already outstanding, be able to issue fully $1,000,000,000 more. Inasmuch as there would still remain a sum of gold amounting to nearly $191,000,000 in the hands of federal reserve agents, a considerable portion of which could be released and used under favorable conditions as a basis for notes, there may safely be added another $250,000,000 to the sum of $687,500,000 and $168,000,000 already enumerated, thus raising the potential issue power of the banks to fully one thousand million dollars.

Figures such as these, says the board, have little meaning in and of themselves, adding: "It may be noted by way of comparison that during the year 1914, when the modified Aldrich-Vreeland law was called into active operation, the issue of notes on the banks was less than $400,000,000 for the country as a whole, while additional issues of clearing house certificates were less than $150,000,000. In round numbers we may say that notes available today are double the amount the total of emergency issue called for at any single time in the past."

At the present time there are approximately $300,000,000 of federal reserve notes in circulation.

LIVE NEWS GATHERED FROM GARDEN GROVE

Correspondent: Mrs. Henry Boley, Phone 45-W

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE GIVEN CLASSMATE

GARDEN GROVE, April 27.—Wednesday, April 25, was the eighteenth anniversary of the birth of Earl Morrell, who is a member of the sophomore class of Orange high school. Wednesday evening he retired earlier than usual when he came to a chorus of "Surprise! surprise!" and there they were, thirty of them, the Baraca Junior Sunday school class, Frank Anderson, teacher, of which Morrell is a member and the Philaena class of girls, Miss Leila Chaffee, teacher. A most delightful evening, with music and games, passed off too quickly. Delicious refreshments were served. It had been planned to have the surprise a double one, surprising also Frank Anderson, who left Thursday for Redlands, but it developed that their house furnishings were almost ready for the moving van, so Frank was left into the secret and the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Morrell accepted.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. George Apgar were Santa Ana and Anaheim visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. George A. Anderson, who is paying a visit to her sons at Colton and testing the curative qualities of Urbia hot springs near there, was at home over Sunday. Rev. Anderson motored with her to Colton Tuesday. She is somewhat improved.

Henry Bon Durant and family and his brother, C. A. Bon Durant and wife, were Laguna visitors Sunday.

Those who enjoyed a pleasant evening Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Wheeler were Mr. and Mrs. John Jentges, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fulson.

Parties who enjoyed grunyon fishing at Anaheim Landing Tuesday evening were Dr. and Mrs. O. O. Young and son Francis, Mr. and Mrs. John Steele and son Johnnie, Frank Rogers and wife, B. J. Hayes and wife, W. D. Junkin and wife, and Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Reinius. That they were eminently successful is shown by their generosity.

T. E. Miles of Santa Ana, former resident of Garden Grove and father of Mrs. William Morrell, had a telegram from Winfield, Kansas, that his brother, Al Miles, had passed away at his home in Winfield. T. E. was unable to go east for the funeral.

Mrs. Thurston Christensen, who was taken to the hospital in Los Angeles on April 1st, is so improved that she returned to her home Sunday.

George Crane and family, of Wintersburg, spent Monday night at the home of Mrs. Aronhalt.

H. B. Clemons motored to Paso Robles Saturday in response to a telegram that his father was very ill. As the length of their stay is indefinite, Fred Kurtz has employed a man to tend the ranch in their absence and he will oversee it.

On Wednesday evening a jolly fishing party went to Anaheim Landing. Those who composed the party were Rev. G. A. Francis, Garfield and Milo Allen, C. A. Emerson, H. Bodenheimer, and Mr. and Mrs. P. M. German, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon King, and Miss Georgina German. They returned in the wee hours of the morning, grunyon laden.

Tom Tournot, who for the past year has been night operator at the Belleflower powerhouse of the Pacific Electric, has resigned his position and Bert Fulton of Santa Ana has been assigned to the Belleflower station.

Donald McKinnon has been assigned as night operator to the powerhouse of the Pacific Electric at Ivanhoe on the Glendale line during the absence of the regular operator, who joined the army, but whose position is open to him on his return. McKinnon moved to Ivanhoe Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Fitz entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson at six o'clock dinner Wednesday on the eve of their departure for Redlands. They have a host of friends from the primary department in Sunday school, of which Mrs. Anderson was superintendent, through every age and station, who deeply regret their departure. They were very popular.

Mrs. Della Chaffee, who has been spending the winter in this section, came over from Long Beach Monday and visited at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Albert J. Chaffee. On Wednesday she left for Idaho to visit her son who is a Presbyterian minister. From there she will return to her home in Eastern Illinois. She expects to return next winter to enjoy the charming climate of the Southland.

Miss Genoa Edgerly, who is employed as stenographer in an office in Lancaster, came Monday for a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Edgerly.

Miss Clara Lott of Highgrove is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Lott.

Mrs. Bohnenberger of Los Angeles is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. C. G. Oertley.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE OF CANADA ROCKIES IS HIGHLY ENJOYED

An audience that filled every available seat thoroughly enjoyed the illustrated lecture, "The Canadian Rockies," given by the Rev. J. E. Fischer at the Methodist church Friday evening.

The lecture was instructive and the pictures superb, creating in every one a desire to become more familiar with the scenic wonders of America.

The lecture was given by the Sunday school of the Methodist church in the Sigma Beta class for the very efficient work done in the interest of the school. It is the purpose of the school to give these popular entertainments at regular intervals.

A service of more than usual attractiveness is planned for Sunday evening at the Methodist church when a delegation of students from the University of Southern California will be present and furnish the program. The entire service will be conducted in a characteristic college manner and there will not be a dull moment. The music will be a very attractive feature of the evening.

SLIDES ILLUMINE SPLENDID LECTURES

To a very large audience at the Baptist church last Sunday evening, the pastor, Rev. George A. Francis, gave an interesting and instructive stereopticon address on ancient objects and eminent people. Photos of Egyptian kings, mummies and monuments holding Babylonian, Assyrian, Egyptian and Moabite records, were thrown on the screen and a list of distinguished celebrities with a descriptive account of their benefactions to the world.

Next Sunday evening, April 29, Rev. Francis will use a list of views presenting objects and persons associated with the early days of Christianity, or when Jesus was here.

On Tuesday last at the regular weekly Bible class at the Baptist church, Rev. Francis gave an address on "The Great European War, as Portrayed on the Pages of Old and New Testament Prophecy." Having given about a quarter of a century of close study to the subject of prophecy as revealed in current history, he is familiar with this topic, as was evidenced by the scholarly character of this address.

At Bible class Tuesday evening, May 1, Rev. Francis will present the following subject: "The Christian Era, or Church Dispensation as Presented in the Prophetic Words by Jesus."

On successive Thursday evenings Rev. Francis will give a brief exposition of the Bible school lesson for the week following.

On Sunday morning Miss Bertha Robinson was accepted as a candidate and baptized by the pastor of the Baptist church.

This is the regular once-a-month meeting, which is always a source of great pleasure for those fortunate enough to be able to attend. The president, Mrs. Frank A. Mills, and her capable committees have preparations completed for entertainment and refreshments.

AGED KINGSTON WOMAN

Tells How She Recovered Her Strength

If the elderly people in Kingston could only realize what Vinol would do for them we would not be able to get enough to supply the demand. Following is a letter received from Mrs. A. E. Carson of this town. She says:—

"I am 69 years of age, and had been ailing for a long time with indigestion. I got run down, was weak, dizzy and could not sleep at night. I consulted two doctors who said I had hardening of the arteries and at my age could not expect to be strong again. My daughter would give me no peace until I tried Vinol, as it had done so much for her. I have taken five bottles and my health and strength have come back, so I am able to do all the housework for my family of four, and I am recommending Vinol to all my friends."

The reason Vinol is so beneficial to old people is because it contains the very elements needed to replace declining strength with renewed vigor, viz., beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones, glycerophosphates and a mild tonic wine.

We want to ask every elderly person and very weak, run-down or debilitated person in Santa Ana to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that we will return your money if it fails to benefit. Rowley Drug Co., Santa Ana, also at the leading drug store in all California towns.—Adv.
